

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

ALEXANDER CASTELLANO-BENITEZ,

Defendant.

4:15CR3114

ORDER

Defendant has moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline, (filing no. 101), because the defendant and defense counsel need additional time to fully review the discovery received before deciding if pretrial motions should be filed. The motion to continue is unopposed. Based on the showing set forth in the motion, the court finds the motion should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's motion to continue, (filing no. 101), is granted.
- 2) Pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before August 17, 2016.
Note: Having already extended the pretrial motion deadline four times, the Court will not grant any further extensions absent a very substantial showing of good cause.
- 3) Trial of this case remains scheduled to commence on September 12, 2016.
- 4) The ends of justice served by granting the motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and
  - a. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today's date and August 17, 2016 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because although counsel have been duly diligent, additional time is needed to adequately prepare this case for trial and failing to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1), (h)(6) & (h)(7).
  - b. Failing to timely file an objection to this order as provided in the local rules of this court will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

August 10, 2016.
